TRAIL DESCRIPTION

1. Ron Stoll Trail – 0.47 mile. Wide trail and easy walking through the woods from Rotary Garden and down to lower driveway. Done in reverse takes a little more effort.
2. Pine Grove Trail – 0.23 mile. Short loop, slight hill, into cool shady pine grove. Owls are known to roost here.
3. Twin Oaks Loop Trail – 0.7 mile. Potential cross-country trail. Nice easy walk along stream and through Pine Grove.
4. Spicebush Loop – 0.18 mile. Variation to Ron Stoll Trail and link to Pokeberry Hill Trail.
5. Pokeberry Hill Trail – 0.50 miles. Moderate hike up and back down one of two hills in the park.
6. Heartattack Hill Trail – 0.65 mile. Moderate hike to the top of the hill is all worthwhile after enjoying views of Laurel Mountains.
7. Spring Hill Trail – 0.34 mile. Takes you down behind Heartattack Hill near a natural spring. Climbing back up using the gas pipeline is an invigorating option or take Hillside Trail and walk along the side of the hill.
8. Hillside Trail – 0.21 mile. Easy level trail connects Heartattack Hill Trail with pipeline and Spring Hill Trail.
9. Sunrise Trail – 0.26 mile. Shady almost level walk where you will find remnants of an old pasture.
10. Sunset Trail – 0.24 mile. Level walk around Heartattack Hill where you can observe beautiful sunsets.
11. Bulltown Link Trail – 0.19 mile. Connects Heartattack Hill Trail to Bulltown Road across from Meadowink Swim Club.
